

3. The Council of Chairs will meet to recommend policies and manage the allocation of laboratory space and related resources. School research laboratory facilities shall include the development and operation of infrastructure supporting the design and construction, development and operation of research facilities. The infrastructure shall be designed to avoid duplication and ensure sustainability of infrastructure.

4. The Council of Chairs shall be responsible for the management of research grantsmanship in the School, through initiatives such as School-a single year. The SNSM Tenure and Promotion

2. Each committee shall elect its own Chair at the initial meeting of e

