Karla Davis Salazar updated the council on the Global Citizenship Program.

- x The first GC cohort of 23 students (from 2011) will be traveling abroad this summer.
- x The 2012 cohorts (from Business, Honors, Engineering, and CAS) are progressing well.
- x There will potentially be 100 more GC students added next year (2013), possibly from the COPH, CoEDU, The Arts, and CAS.
- x The Global Citizenship Living Learning Community (GC LLC) is currently being formed for the 2013-2014 academic year. There are 56 places reserved in Holly G for GC LLC students. They will be a combination of returning GC students, and newly recruited, FTIC GC students.

Janet Moore and Karla Davis Salazar updated the council on FKL Assessments.

- x Enhancements/improvements were seen in all areas in the 5th year report, i.e., Human and Cultural Diversity, Global Context, Creativity, and Writing.
- x GEC will continue with ownership of FKL assessment once the state-wide changes have been made to general education.
- x

Karla Davis Salazar updated the council on the state-mandated general education changes.

- x A presentation was recently made to a subcommittee within the House of Representatives on the progress of the statewide general education project.
- x It was reported that there is, generally speaking, widespread receptiveness regarding similar issues that were discussed at the 2/4/13 GEC meeting, i.e., increasing General Education back to
